1.	Taking cores - Evaluated by testing the compressive strength performed by the PT Organizer according to PN-EN 12504-1:2019-08 (EN 12504-1:2019) on samples taken and prepared by the Participant (core sample diameter: 100 mm, measuring range: 100 kN ÷ 800 kN)	PN-EN 12504-1:2019-08 (EN 12504-1:2019)	745 € – For participation in a proficiency test of one measured quantity /property 1 167 € – For participation in a proficiency test of two measured quantities /properties 1 410 € – For participation in a proficiency test of three measured quantities /properties	☐	☐
2.	Compressive strength (core sample diameter: 100 mm, measuring range: 100 kN ÷ 800 kN)	PN-EN 12504-1:2019-08 (EN 12504-1:2019)		☐	☐
3.	Bond strength Pull-off method (measuring range: 1 kN ÷ 10 kN)	PN-EN 1542:2000 (EN 1542:1999)		☐	☐
[1)] please check the appropriate box X

Location of taking core drillings and performing Pull-off test:
- Niepołomice, Małopolskie Voivodeship, Poland (exact address and detailed schedule of taking cores will be provided to the Participant after he/she submits the Registration Form and confirms his/her participation in this round)

As part of this Proficiency Testing Program, the Participant:
- takes concrete samples from the structure (cores) from the proficiency testing object prepared by the PT Organizer;
- performs Pull-off bond strength testing at the proficiency testing object prepared by the PT Organizer;
- transports the concrete samples taken from the structure (cores) to his own location where he will prepare specimens for further testing;
- transfers the specimens he has prepared for the sampling evaluation for the PT Organizer to perform the compressive strength test;
- performs the compressive strength test on the specimens he has prepared for compressive strength evaluation.

The Registration Form should be sent in the form of a scan to the e-mail address: badania.bieglosci@barg.pl by September 11, 2026. Sending the Registration Form is treated as acceptance of the Proficiency Testing Program and financial conditions, as well as the commitment to maintain the confidentiality of the obtained test results with respect to other Participants and to protect the proficiency testing documentation from unauthorized access. The Participant is obliged to take samples / perform tests and submit them to the Organizer, without connivance with other Participants whose participation in the relevant program is known to him from other sources. If collusion is identified, Participants will be disqualified from the round in question.

The PT Organizer reserves the right to:
- change the date for Participants to take samples (cores) and perform Pull-off bond strength tests indicated in the PT Program Schedule for this round, in the event of external factors, beyond the control of the PT Organizer, affecting the preparation of proficiency testing objects [Participants will be immediately informed of this fact, and the new date will be indicated at least
